

Listening Hearts Retreats

Experiential Approach to Seeking God's Guidance

Participant Feedback

"Awesome! Informative"

"Spiritual, informative, focused, uplifting"

"Very inspiring & heart-opening."

"I especially liked getting off by myself in quiet places about the building & listening, praying."

"Has left me with much 'food for thought'...thought provoking, interesting, authentic extraordinary—life changing"

"I didn't feel rushed or crowded--Opportunity for quiet reflection and sharing with others"

"I've learned new ways to meditate that I've never done. The idea that God can speak to me through the result of my creative activity (drawing or clay) is new and exciting."

"I liked the community building through the small groups."

"I was able to interact with people I might not have talked with normally."

"The (uncommon to me) practice of centering and speaking from the heart in small groups helped me spend time present to God."

"What an honor and privilege to share so deeply in the lives of others."

"Spent time present to God, deeply & significantly, inside me, outside me, in others, among us."
