

Day of Discernment How to Listen to God's Voice

Participant Feedback

"Perfect. Even the music upon entering. Food for body & soul. Ease and competence of workshop facilitators. Flow of design. The initial invitation to share in large group was extremely effective, built trust, open."

"The tone was very gentle and caring."

"Very open. There was a great deal of trust."

"Seamless facilitation team; held the container; verbally and non-verbally gave us permission to be open."

"Well organized and carefully thought through design; clear goals and objectives—realized these by the end of the workshop. Pace, rhythm (large, small groups and individual time) terrific."

"...it was wonderful in tone, balance, and content."

"The quiet personal time followed by small group interaction were very helpful."

"Guidelines for listening—terrific."

"I am shocked by how creative activities bring out important thoughts, feelings, & revelations."

"Enabled a greater appreciation of who we are as a parish."

"Clear sense of where [we] might follow up to deepen and extend ministry."

"[The leader's] empathy and willingness to be flexible, accepting, and at the same time encouraging caused a little bit of magic to happen."

"Totally wonderful. A 'life changing' experience."
