

Training Judicatory Trainers

To prepare facilitators to train and mentor discernment committees for congregations

Participant feedback

"The most prayerful group experience I have had over an extended period."

"An excellent grace-filled experience."

"The integration of all the senses in the learning process leads to better listening."

"The idea of resting in God has taken on a new meaning."

"Very soaked in prayer."

"The written materials were easily accessible and gave structure to my process of trying to learn."

"I have gained many more tools, most of which were at hand, but needed to be oiled and sharpened before they were useful."

"This time has probably been the most important use of time apart for retreat that I have ever had."
