

Listening Hearts

Discernment Workshop for a Search Committee

Participant Feedback

"I learned a lot and am thankful for the training."

"It was one of our first meetings as a group & I now feel better able to take part."

"It was very freeing to be told not to plan what we wanted to say while trying to listen to another. The pauses and silence are wonderful for experiencing God's peace."

"I did feel God was speaking thru the members of the group and in shared Scriptures."

Aspects of the workshop most important to me: "Sharing our faith and goals in a not threatening environment. The freedom to speak or not speak."

"[to be drawn into a closer relationship with God and others in the group] was the most significant part of our workshop."

"I wish I could share this experience with others outside of this group."

"...the entire day offered us an excellent means to work & grow together."

"This training and the materials provided are excellent."

"I believe this workshop has really set us on the right track."