

Discernment Workshop for a Search Committee

Overview

This all day workshop (9 to 5) prepares a search committee to conduct its business in a God-centered way based on the principles of spiritual discernment.

Intended Audience

Any church-related committee conducting a search to fill a significant position such as rector, bishop, music director, head of a church-related school, or executive director for a faith based not-for-profit organization.

Summary of Content

This one-day workshop carefully introduces the basic building blocks of spiritual discernment one by one to lay a solid foundation for deep prayerful listening and consensus building. It then engages the group in an afternoon of spiritual discernment to help it assimilate the principles through actual experience.
